

News for Immediate Release

May 16, 2013

PA Army National Guard's 28th Infantry Division to Host Memorial Service in Boalsburg

Harrisburg – The Pennsylvania National Guard's 28th Infantry Division will host a memorial service at 12:30 p.m. on Sunday, May 19, at the Pennsylvania Military Museum in Boalsburg, Centre County.

This annual event commemorates the sacrifice of those who served in the division. Activities will include a military band concert and vehicle displays.

The 28th Division is currently comprised of nearly 15,000 members, from more than 100 units based in nearly 80 communities across the state.

To learn more about the 28th Infantry Division, visit us online at <http://pa.ng.mil/ARNG/28ID> or follow us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/28thID.

Media contact: Maj. Cory Angell, 717-222-9006

###