

News for Immediate Release

May 17, 2013

PA Citizens Advisory Committee and HACC to Host Harrisburg Job Fair

Harrisburg – Individuals who are unemployed, underemployed or who have a criminal history that makes it difficult to find and retain employment, are invited to attend the Harrisburg Job Fair from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., on Wednesday, May 22, at Harrisburg Area Community College's (HACC) Midtown 2 Campus, Room 206, 1500 N. Third St., Harrisburg.

An on-site employment workshop will be conducted during the event at 10:30 a.m.

The event, sponsored by the Harrisburg District Citizens Advisory Committee of the Pennsylvania Board of Probation and Parole, HACC, Dauphin County Adult Probation and Parole, and Bureau of Community Corrections, is to focus on individuals re-entering the workforce, including successful ex-offenders.

Businesses and service providers can participate for free by contacting Matthew Sheaffer either at 717-418-6614 or email at matsheaffe@pa.gov.

Attendees do not need to register. Proper interview attire is suggested and individuals are encouraged to bring a resume.

Media contact: Laura Treaster, 717-787-6208

###